NEHA...THE resource for the new environmental health and protection professional!

We hope you discovered, as a Student Member, the many advantages of belonging to the National Environmental Health Association (NEHA). Now that you've graduated, NEHA welcomes you into the profession with a SPECIAL OFFER.

All new graduates (whether you are continuing your membership with us or just discovering what NEHA has to offer) may become Individual Members of NEHA (regularly $95) at the welcome-to-the-profession price of just $25 (a savings of $70) for one year after graduation.

When you join NEHA, you become a member of the only association that covers all areas of environmental health and protection (EH&P), including terrorism and all-hazards preparedness, food protection, hazardous waste, onsite wastewater, air and water quality, epidemiology, and EH management—in both the public and private sectors.

NEHA offers you...

...many tools to help you both in your search for a job and in your first year as a professional, including:

INFORMATION

Journal of Environmental Health (JEH)

JEH is an excellent resource for timely EH&P information and will provide you with innovative, practical ideas to carry into the field and the office. NEHA members receive this attractive and informative 64⁺ – page journal 10 times per year.

NEHA Web site

Visit www.neha.org for information on upcoming conferences, workshops, credentials, and numerous resources.

EDUCATION & NETWORKING

NEHA Annual Educational Conference (AEC) & Exhibition

EH&P professionals may attend as generalists or specialists and select classes from over 18 EH&P areas. Either way, you are guaranteed a superb educational and networking experience. NEHA members receive discounts on registration fees.

NEHA Workshops

NEHA members may take advantage of EH&P workshops at little or no cost! Current workshops include: Epi-Ready Foodborne Illness Response Strategies; Food Safe Schools Action Guide Workshop; IAQ: Overview/Asthma Triggers; IAQ: Tools for Schools; Radon-Resistant New Construction (RRNC); and EH Leadership Development.

Continuing Education Contact Hours

When you become credentialed, meet your Continuing Education (CE) requirements through NEHA by attending conferences; viewing videos; writing book reviews of NEHA's publications; or by completing JEH quizzes (available to members only), or one of NEHA's Learning Modules, or computer-based training programs.

NEHA Sabbatical Exchange Program

A remarkable all-expense-paid, month-long opportunity to experience and learn about how EH&P is practiced in another country (England or Canada). Each year members are invited to apply for this award.

NEHA Membership provides you with...

- Access to Vital Information Including a Subscription to the Esteemed Journal of Environmental Health
- Superior Education and Networking Opportunities
- Professional Recognition and Career Advancement Opportunities
- Discounts on Products and Services

PROFESSIONAL RECOGNITION AND CAREER ADVANCEMENT OPPORTUNITIES

NEHA Membership Card and Certificate

As a NEHA member, you will automatically receive a wallet-size membership card. Proclaim your membership in the only EH&P professional association by requesting a personalized membership certificate to display on your wall.

NEHA's Online JobCenter

NEHA's JobCenter is the only place you will find nothing but environmental health and protection positions. Job seekers may view the listings at no charge. Job announcements in this section are placed as a special offering at no or reduced cost to NEHA Sustaining and Educational Members, and to city, county, and state health departments that employ NEHA Individual Members.

NEHA Credentials

A NEHA credential signifies a level of expertise and competence based on education and experience that is nationally recognized within the environmental health and protection professional field and with the public. NEHA members receive significant discounts on exam and renewal fees. If you graduated from an accredited environmental health school, you may sit for the exam upon graduation, without the usual two-year professional experience requirement. Visit www.neha.org for complete information on requirements.

DISCOUNTS

Books and Training Materials

You may select from over 300 titles representing EH technical disciplines, professional development, and management topics. NEHA members receive significant discounts on all publications and videos. Visit the NEHA Web site at www.neha.org for a complete listing of titles.

Discounts on Services

NEHA members receive discounts on: rental car services; professional liability insurance; overnight, 2nd Day and ground shipping services through DHL; and Environmental Health Information Service subscription packages. Members may also apply for the NEHA Mastercard with no annual fee.
