NEHA Offers Students...

Scholarships

Who couldn't use some help with tuition and books? Several scholarships are available to students for their junior and senior year of undergraduate school and for graduate students. Scholarships are sponsored by NEHA and the American Academy of Sanitarians. See www.neha.org for details.

Resources to use when you're researching a paper

Come to EH Links at www.neha.org and see where we can lead you.

Insight into your chosen profession

Get a real look at what the profession is all about from the columns, articles, and departments of NEHA's esteemed and peer-reviewed Journal of Environmental Health. The Journal is also a rich source for the latest research on environmental health and protection. A subscription is included with every Student Membership.

Exposure to EH&P leaders at the AEC & Exhibition

Network with and learn from the profession's experts presenting the sessions, and those in attendance, when you come to NEHA's Annual Educational Conference (AEC) & Exhibition. This bonanza of education and networking is available at a BIG discount to all full-time students.

What you get...

- 10 issues of the esteemed, peer-reviewed Journal of Environmental Health, giving you insight into your chosen profession.
- Free membership directory (on request) of nearly 5,000 environmental health professionals—instant contacts!
- NEHA Online Bookstore discounts - Order at the member price from the over 300 titles in all EH&P subject areas.
