NEHA Offers You:

VISIBILITY AND SPECIAL RECOGNITION

Journal of Environmental Health (JEH) Listing You will be listed as an Educational Member in each issue of the JEH, signifying to thousands of environmental health professionals your organization's dedication and commitment to environmental health issues. You also receive a 20% discount on display advertising in JEH.

Reach Potential Students NEHA receives several calls a week from potential students looking for information on educational programs. As an Educational Member, you may send literature about your program to NEHA to be distributed to anyone who asks about these programs.

Free Job Listing and Link on NEHA's Web Site, www.neha.org Hundreds of environmental health professionals visit the NEHA Web site each week. Post your job opening in NEHA's JobCenter, and reach this national pool of potential applicants. Your first listing each year is free, and you receive a 20% discount on additional listings. You also receive a complimentary link to your Web site from NEHA's EH Links, connecting NEHA's visitors directly to your institution.

NEHA Scholarships Scholarships are granted to exemplary environmental health students in quality environmental health programs. A NEHA Scholarship granted to a student in your program is a reflection of the program as well as the student. Students qualify for scholarships by attending a school that is a NEHA Educational Member and/or that is accredited. Scholarships are available to four-year and graduate schools only.

NEHA Membership Certificate As an Educational Member, you may request a handsome certificate to display on your wall.
