

AEC 24

New Horizons: Building Bridges to Shape the EH Future.

Join us

as we reinforce the bridge from our industry to yours.

Our Annual Educational Conference (AEC) & Exhibition is both in person and virtual, providing a multitude of opportunities to connect with the decision-makers, influencers, and users of your products and services.

Get Meaningful Leads

The AEC is specifically designed to support the environmental health professionals and leaders immersed in the field every day and can benefit from your products and services. These professionals:

- Inspect facilities and systems
- Communicate directly with their communities
- Work in government agencies (city, county, state, tribal, territorial, federal, uniformed services)
- Work in the private sector (private companies, consulting, consumer product safety)
- Work in academia

Connect Your Solution to New Industries

Environmental health programs are at the forefront of safeguarding our health from environmental risks. Your organization can play a pivotal role by providing the workforce with the tools and services to do their jobs in the following areas:

- Air Quality
- Children's Environmental Health
- Climate & Sustainability
- Data & Technology
- Emergency Preparedness & Response
- Environmental Health Impact Assessment
- Environmental Justice
- Food Safety
- Hazardous & Toxic Materials
- Healthy Communities
- Infectious Disease
- Vectorborne & Animal-borne Disease
- Land Use
- Schools & Institutions
- Water Quality
- Workforce & Leadership

Sponsorship

Show You Understand

Sponsoring at the AEC is more than just sharing your logo with your target market. You are sending a message to the environmental health workforce that:

- You support their work by offering your products and services
- You understand their needs by innovating solutions to address the latest issues
- You are available and ready to help

Stay Top of Mind

Each of our sponsorship options is designed to offer flexibility in levels of visibility and opportunities to connect your brand to their work. Choose a sponsorship option below, or contact us to find the perfect sponsorship to fit your needs and budget!

Exhibition

Tell & Show

Our AEC Exhibition is one of the best conferences to interact with environmental, and public health professionals. We craft dedicated opportunities and space to make connections and find leads. We provide:

- An Exhibition Grand Opening event with no other competing events or sessions
- An evening reception in the exhibit hall to encourage attendees to engage with you
- Beverage breaks in the Exhibit Hall to attract conference attendees
- Options for interactive displays and demonstrations to engage attendees

Exhibitor Benefits

As an exhibitor at our AEC, we provide everything you need to share your products and promote your services. As an exhibitor you will receive:

- A 10' x 10' space with back drape and side drape, a 2' x 6' covered and skirted display table, two chairs, and a wastebasket
- Two full conference registrations (access to ~200 educational sessions, the Exhibition Grand Opening, and social events)
- Exhibit Hall with security
- Visibility by being listed as an exhibitor on the conference app
- Preconference attendee email list
