InFORM 2023

REGIONAL MEETINGS

Reach environmental and public health decision-makers from across the country

Select your sponsorship level today!

- Invest in your growth & your future.
- Maximize your ROI.
- Get in front of your audience - the buyers of your products and services.

Reach Your Target Market

The InFORM Regional Meetings bring together the network of federal, state and local public health officials involved with foodborne and enteric disease outbreak response. If your target market includes the following decision-makers, then join us as a sponsor for these regional meetings.

- Public health professionals
- Environmental health specialists
- Epidemiologists
- Health communicators
- Laboratory scientists
- Relevant Products & Services

Show Your Commitment With Sponsorship

Becoming a sponsor shows participants from across the country, from small organizations to very large agencies that you are committed to the advancement of environmental health and have what they need to support their work, including tools for:

- Data & Technology
- Emergency Preparedness & Response
- Environmental Health Impact Assessment
- Environmental Justice
- Food Safety & Defense
- Hazardous & Toxic Materials
- Healthy Homes & Communities
- Infectious Diseases
- School & Institutions
