NEHA proudly presents:
Enhancing Environmental Health Knowledge (EEK):
Vectors & Public Health Pests Virtual Conference
May 15–16

The EEK Virtual Conference is a highly informative forum that brings together public and environmental health professionals to discuss emerging issues and solutions, as well as the latest information, resources, tools, and training about vectors and public health pests.

Over 15 presentations will be offered
Track topics include:
- Research & New Insights
- Programs, Strategies, & Surveillance
- Vector/Pest Management and Control
- Tools and Trainings

REGISTER TODAY
neha.6connex.com/event/VirtualConference/eek/login

Visit neha.org/eek-2018 for more information